

Infection Control and Hospital Management in the health facilities with patients of COVID-19 in Vietnam and Senegal

作成日: 2021年2月28日

- This project expected to improve infection control and hospital management during COVID-19 pandemic by conducting the online training.
- In this year, this project will conduct trainings in two countries; Vietnam and Senegal. This project has lectures movies in various topics and languages which were established last year. These movies will be updated and utilized this year.

< Training Schedule >

① Bach Mai Hospital
October 2021 Online training (50 trainees) : Second time training

- ICU strategies during COVID-19 pandemic: how to solve the problem of sudden increase of the COVID-19 patients
- General infectious control in NCGM
- Mental health of healthcare staffs

② Hospitals in Senegal or other possible countries
December 2021 Online training (50 trainees): First time training

- How to mitigate the influence of COVID-19 in Japan and NCGM